NOTE: you can also shape your gingerbread man from just the white Hearty clay and paint it after.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Mix the Raw Siena paint with a little of the Antique Gold paint into some white Hearty Clay. Add more paint until you reach the desired shade similar to a gingerbread cookie.

2. Roll out the clay like cookie dough onto a flat surface.

3. Use a cookie cutter to cut out the gingerbread shape.

You can also free-hand cut out the cookie using a plastic knife or similar.

INSTRUCTIONS CONTINUED

4. Use the end of the paint brush to make a hole at the top so you can add a hanger for an ornament.

Let clay air dry.

5. Add details to the clay piece.

Make dip dot eyes with the black and white paints using the end of the paint brush.

6. Make little heart buttons down the middle.

Use the white acrylic paint or Shiny white Scribbles to paint in "frosting."

Let paints dry.

7. String a piece of ribbon or cording through the hole to create a hanger for your ornament.
